

CONFERENCE September 22—24, 2025 in Moline, IL

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS: Rev. Kelly Kincaid & Dennis Muzzi from Braver Angels on DEI and Ethics
2-1/2 CEU's DEI and Ethics

Building Stronger Unity In Your Spiritual Community

In this session, Rev. Kelly Kincaid and Dennis Muzzi will share ideas on how to cultivate more closeness, understanding, awareness and unity within your spiritual community and how to disagree better and become intentional agents of healing and change in the world, individually and as a group, using Unity and Braver Angels Principles.

Rev. Kelly Kincaid is the Senior Minister of Unity of Farmington Hills, in Farmington Hills, MI. She is passionate about her relationship with God and about learning, teaching, and living according to the teachings of Jesus and Truth principles. She refers to Truth principles in her Critical Conversations group, which she started five years ago, after the murder of George Floyd to discuss the unjust, unequal, and unloving aspects in the environment of our country. She says that she's not about the politics, but the "heartitics" because it is through the heart that we can create real change. Throughout the years, she has been progressively introducing a broader perspective through films, field trips, fundraisers and workshops to introduce a de-escalation of polarizing influences.

Rev. David McArthur, Author, The Intelligent Heart: Transforming Your Life with the Laws of Love; Your Spiritual Heart; The Monk’s Choice On “Practicing Heart Coherence”

PRESENTING: Our Evolutionary Edge Emerging Vision 2 CEU's

Music with Nina

Swanson

Director of Music at Unity of through many cycles of change and renewal. Throughout all of the changes she has relied on her love of spiritual music, and her joy and gratitude for being in a position to serve using that love on a weekly basis. She enjoys writing music for the church as well as using traditional hymns and finding new music from many different sources. At Unity Cr she works with a house band, and many different guest musicians, who keep the joy going! Outside of the church she is active in theatre, teaches piano, works as a voice-over artist, and accompanies her local school's choirs. She feels blessed to spread the universal message of Unity through music.

Nina Swanson has been the music director at the Unity Center of Cedar Rapids for over 35 years. During that time she has served under 6 different ministers and seen the church go

She is grateful to her husband Carl who has been such a great support to her and the Unity Center - using his expertise as a sound and video technician and his generosity in providing equipment to to bring Unity Center into the new world of online services.
